This model enables us to quantify the cost impact of changes within a certain battery component (e.g. chemistry changes in cathodes and anodes), along the battery supply chain (e.g. ...

Current Market Analysis. As of 2024, lithium prices have stabilized from their major plunge of 2022-2023. The current price is attributed to several factors: Increased Demand: The global shift towards electrification and decarbonization has accelerated the demand for lithium-ion batteries. EVs, energy storage systems, and consumer electronics continue to drive ...

A bull trap is a pattern formed to "trap" buyers (bulls) into buying in a bearish trend, after which the price suddenly turns against them, and they are forced to close their position in a loss. Various factors, including market manipulation, false or misleading information, and herd mentality, can cause bull traps.

Similarly, waiting for prices to fill a gap before getting on board a trend might make you miss a big move. So, instead of waiting for gaps to be filled, you may be better off focusing on the message gaps convey about market dynamics. Gaps are a significant technical development in price action and chart analysis.
