TDK Corporation has extended its portfolio of EPCOS film capacitors for DC link applications with the robust new B3277*M series. The new types are suitable for extreme environmental conditions - a fact that has been proven by means of a THB test at 85 °C, 85 percent relative humidity with a rated voltage applied for 1000 hours.

Film Capacitors are used in almost all electronic circuits. They store energy and discharge it when needed. Important applications for film capacitors include electronic filtering for linear and switching power supplies; decoupling and bypass of electronic signals for circuits and circuit boards; and frequency control, timing and conditioning of electronic signals for a broad range of ...

TDK has introduced a bio-circular polypropylene film for its ModCap series of DC-link capacitors. This is the first step towards fully sustainable film capacitors as Dr. Marisa Rico, coordinator of the materials ...

Film capacitors for use in electronic equipment are packaged in the common and usual industry styles: axial, radial, and SMD. Traditional axial type packages are less used today, but are still specified for point-to-point wiring and some traditional through-hole printed circuit boards. The most common form factor is the radial type (single ended), with both terminals on one side of ...

Electrolytic capacitors as well as film capacitors are referred to as "self-healing": defects in the dielectric layer of electrolytic capacitors are repaired by anodic oxidation, consuming oxygen from the electrolyte. Defects ...

TDK Corporation (TSE:6762) presents a new series of EPCOS MKP AC capacitors for filter applications. The components of the B33331V* series are designed for a rated voltage of 460 V RMS, corresponding to a peak voltage of 650 V, and cover a capacitance range from 2 μ F to 50 μ F. Both the cans and the tops are constructed of aluminum, making the ...
