I have a 2006 Apex, and battery compartment and hydraulics compartment just naturally get dirty, dusty and greasy with age. Is it as simple as -- turn off all battery switches and spray both compartments with a good de-greaser - then hose off. And then allow plenty of time to dry? I do not have any corrosion on the terminals.

Since my original overhaul of the battery compartment, I've expanded it with solar, inverter, and a charger. (and associated circuit breakers). If solar is a possibility in your future, take that into account as you clean up the mess. 09-14-2019, 10:16 AM #5: Detroitdeb. Member .
